28 July 2015

Nerine Group of Fiduciaries' Guernsey and Hong Kong offices have been shortlisted to win the "Trust Company of the Year" category in their respective jurisdictions at the Citywealth International Financial Centre (IFC)

Awards 2016.

Now in their fifth year, the Citywealth IFC Awards were established to highlight the excellence of private wealth advisors and managers in major international financial centres. Online voting has now opened and will run until 30 November 2015.

This is the third year running that Nerine has been shortlisted for the "Trust Company of the Year – Hong Kong" award, winning in 2014 and placing as runner-up in 2015. This year Nerine is also one of eight firms listed in the "Trust Company of the Year – Guernsey" category. The winners will be chosen by a panel of expert judges with experience of working with advisors from all the jurisdictions covered and by the number of votes received through online voting.

Nerine executive chairman Keith Corbin said: "We're thrilled to see Nerine shortlisted in two categories for this year's awards. Our Hong Kong office has been particularly successful in making its third appearance on the list. Across all our jurisdictions we strive to build enduring client relationships and provide excellent service. This ethos is upheld by our talented teams and recognition like this is a direct result of their hard work.

"We invite all of our clients, intermediaries and anyone who has a connection to Nerine to consider voting."

Online votes can be cast here until 30 November. Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony in London on 20 January 2016.
