Nerine Group of Fiduciaries has been shortlisted in the Independent Trust Company of the Year category of the Citywealth Magic Circle Awards 2015.

The shortlisting follows hot on the heels of Nerine's win in the 'Best Independent Trust Company' category at the prestigious STEP Private Client Awards last year.

Group executive chairman, Keith Corbin, said: "We believe that our uncompromising independence is a major contributing factor in building and maintaining strong relationships with clients. Our goal is to provide the right solution for each client in the right jurisdiction employing the highest levels of expertise and experience.

Now in its ninth year, the awards were established to find the best private wealth advisors and managers in the global industry.

Entries are shortlisted by a judging panel of 10 global industry experts and are then subject to an online vote.

Nerine was founded in 1997 with an office of 10 in Guernsey; today it employs nearly 100 staff in Guernsey, British Virgin Islands, Switzerland, Hong Kong and Delhi.

"We are pleased to have been shortlisted for this award which acknowledges this focus on our clients and the hard work and dedication of our teams across the globe."
