Update - British Virgin Islands

Nerine Trust Company (BVI) Limited

8 September 2017

As you are no doubt aware from the recent and extensive international media coverage, Hurricane Irma struck the British Virgin Islands on Wednesday as a category 5 hurricane and caused extensive damage, and a state of national emergency has been declared. Messages from the Premier, Dr The Honourable D Orlando Smith OBE, and His Excellency, The Governor Augustus Jaspert, are available to view at The Department of Disaster Management of the British Virgin Islands website www.bviddm.com.

Our BVI office remains closed and contact with the BVI is practically impossible as telephone, mobile phone and internet communications are down.

Our immediate priority at this time is establishing the safety of our colleagues and their families in the BVI.

Whilst our BVI office remains closed we are still able to provide a limited range of BVI services through our network of offices. Should you have any urgent needs, please do not hesitate to contact one of our other offices using the contact details below:

Guernsey	telephone: +44 1481 701300	e-mail: info@nerine.com
Geneva	telephone: +41 22 7160 916	e-mail: info@nerine.ch
Hong Kong	telephone: +852 3125 1200	e-mail: info@nerine.com.hk

We will endeavour to provide updates as to the ongoing situation in the BVI.

Our thoughts and prayers are with our team in the BVI, and the other citizens of the region, as they recover from such an unprecedented natural disaster.
