

NEWS

Nerine shortlisted for Magic Circle Awards

Nerine Trust Company Limited

21 November 2017

Nerine Fiduciaries have been shortlisted to win the 'Trust Company of the Year - Boutique' category at Citywealth's 2018 Magic Circle Awards. They are one of seven trust companies to have been shortlisted this year.

The Magic Circle Awards are now in its 11th year and held every spring to celebrate the best advisors and managers in the global industry. Entries to all categories are shortlisted as finalists by a judging panel featuring ten leading global industry experts. Voting then takes place online, which is open now that the finalists have been announced.

"We are immensely proud of this achievement. Being shortlisted for an award such as this reflects on the consistent hard work, integrity, and passion of all our staff at Nerine," said chairman, Keith Corbin.

Voting closes on 15 April 2018 and votes can be cast online here: <https://www.citywealthmag.com/awards/magic-circle-awards/voting>

Nerine have previously been shortlisted for this award in 2015.